

Leading safety technology for Rail Transportation

A Swiss based manufacturing company specialized in the design, development and sales of electro/mechanical components and electric traction sub-systems for the railway industry is currently recruiting a Test engineer for its factory in Prague.

TEST ENGINEER

Job content:

- Preparation and arrangement of test procedures (sub-system routine tests, measuring of diode blocks, routine tests of rectifiers)
- Improvement of testing processes in production focused on higher quality and customer wishes
- Updating company directives connected with testing of sub-system field, cooperation with other company units
- Customer services for sub-stations
- Effective communication with customers
- Ensure compliance with all internal control and production guidelines

Requirements:

- University education in technical field (Electrical Engineering – CVUT, VUT)
- Minimum of 1 years experience in similar position in an international environment is a plus
- Knowledge of sub-system field and testing processes, reg.§ 50
- Focused on quality and process efficiently
- Good communication skills
- Fluency in Czech and English both oral and written
- Skilled user of MS Office

Our offer:

- Challenging position within an international company
- Competitive remuneration
- Interesting package of other benefits (pension insurance, bonuses, meal tickets, etc.)

Start: ASAP

Séchron Tchequie – HR Department, 556 Podnikatelska,
190 11 Praha 9 – Bechovice
Phone: +420 271 088 207

personalni@secheron.cz
www.secheron.com